

Prof. Dr. D. Pevernagie is a pulmonologist, somnologist, and currently medical director of the Kempenhaeghe sleep medicine centre at Heeze, The Netherlands. He graduated as a medical doctor in 1983 at the university of Ghent, Belgium, and specialized in pulmonology. After a period of research with John Shepard in 1990-91 at the Mayo Clinic in Rochester, MN, USA, he was appointed at the department of Respiratory Diseases of the Ghent University Hospital in Belgium where he founded the sleep clinic for adult patients. In 1994, he obtained a PhD in biomedical science on the topic 'Body position and obstructive sleep apnea'. In 2000, he was appointed assistant professor in Ghent at the faculty of Medicine, department of Internal Medicine. In 2007, he moved to Kempenhaeghe, a tertiary referral hospital, to become the head of the sleep medicine centre. His main research is in the area of sleep related disorders of breathing. He has been board member of the ESRS and is currently a member of the ESRS sleep medicine committee and educational committee. He has been co-author of over 40 original publications in peer reviewed journals. He has obtained the qualification of 'somnologist' following the ESRS sleep medicine examination in 2012.

Bibliography: <https://biblio.ugent.be/publication?q=%22dirk+pevernagie%22>